

O Thou that Dwellest in the Heav'ns

Psalm 123

A E A Asus A E

1.O thou that dwell - est in the heav'ns I
 2.As maids do watch their mis - tress' hand, So 3.O Lord be grac - cious un - to us. To 4.Our soul is filled with scorn from those that

5 A D E

lift mine eyes to - thee. Be - our eyes now at - tend u - us now gra - - - cious be; For at their ease a - bide, And

8 A/C# D E F#m D A/C# D Bm A/C# E

hold, as ser - vants' eyes at - tend Their pon the Lord our God, un - til to filled with scorn - ing and con - tempt ex - with the in - - so - lent con - tempt of

12 F#m E A/C# D A/E E F#m

mas - ters hand to see.
 us he mer - - cy send.
 ceed - - - ing that - ly are we.
 those that swell in pride.

15 D A E

Words: William Cowper. Music: William Billings, 1770.
 Tune: AFRICA, from The Sacred Harp. Arr Bruce Benedict, 2009